
Gaye L. Evans

Director, Budget and Policy and Procedures
Division and Special Assistant for Human Capital
Assistant Secretary of the Navy
(Financial Management & Comptroller)

As the Policy and Procedures Division Director within the Office of Budget, Ms. Evans is responsible for all budget policies and procedures for the Department of the Navy (DON). Additionally, she is the special assistant for human capital issues (FMH) to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (FM&C). In this position she is responsible for issues associated with recruiting, training, and retaining financial management personnel within the DON. As an additional duty assignment, Ms. Evans is the Continuous Process Improvement Deployment Champion for the ASN(FM&C) organization and a Lean Six Sigma green belt.

Ms. Evans entered government service in 1978 as a staff accountant at the Naval Air Systems Command. In 1980, she became a budget analyst in the Operations and Maintenance Division of the Naval Air Systems Command, responsible for both Active and Reserve depot maintenance funding issues.

In 1985, Ms. Evans transferred to the Office of Budget, ASN(FM&C). During her tenure in the Budget Office she was a lead analyst for various appropriations, including Operation and Maintenance, Navy, Procurement Marine Corps, Research Development, Test and Evaluation, Navy and Other Procurement, Navy. In March 1993, she became the other Investment and Development Branch head in the Investment and Development Division. From 1993-1994, her responsibilities included the review of R&D, Military Construction, Family Housing and Base Closure budgets. In 1994 she was assigned the Shipbuilding and Other Procurement Branch head position. In this capacity, Ms. Evans was responsible for the financial review of all Navy shipbuilding programs, Navy C4I programs, and surface, subsurface, and carrier investment programs.

Ms. Evans was promoted to the Senior Executive Service in January 1996. As the Deputy Commander for Financial Management, Marine Corps Systems Command, she served as the principle advisor to the Commander concerning the planning, programming and budgeting of the Marine Corps ground allocation of R&D and Procurement Marine Corps appropriations, and the Command's Operation and Maintenance, Marine Corps funds. In 1999 she returned to the Office of Budget as the Director, Investment and Development Division and held that position until October 2004.

In addition to her DON duties, Ms. Evans is the chair of the Finance Committee at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church.

Ms. Evans graduated from Radford University with a bachelor's of science degree in accounting and management and attended graduate school at American University.

Ms. Evans is a member of the Washington Chapter of the American Society of Military Comptrollers and has received the Department of the Navy Meritorious and Superior Civilian Service Awards, and the Presidential Meritorious Rank Award.
